SPEAKER PROFILE

Osbert Osamai is an Author, Speaker, Mentor, Rotarian and ICT professional and Rotarian with more than 16 years' experience leading delivery of successful projects across software engineering, e-services, enterprise systems integration, Public Key Infrastructure, ICT consulting, Digital Transformation Advisory, IT Audit and Assurance in banking and public sectors.

Osbert is passionate about enterprise IT governance and alignment of technology to deliver business value. As a speaker and industry leader, Osbert shares from his deep experience and insight for every he is invited to speak. He excels at building meaningful relationships with his audience.

Osbert is an author and has co-authored a book under the 'Transformation Diary' initiative. The deep insight and guidance offered in this book is highly relevant to any leader at the helm of driving digital transformation for their organization. The book brings to light the issues that many a time, leaders do not prepare for! The authors address relevant core aspects of digital transformation that can only come by experience. Business and technology leaders will learn which issues to avoid and best practices to adopt as they navigate paths for leading digital transformation for their organizations.

Osbert holds a Masters' Degree in Data Communications and Software Engineering, MBA, Leadership and Entrepreneurship as well as the following credentials: Certified Information Systems Auditor (CISA), COBIT Practitioner, Scrum Master, TOGAF & ITIL.

Osbert
Osamai

Reach out via:
hello@leadmation.org
www.leadmation.org